Members of Pom Poms, Drill Squad, and Band create a colorful crowd at an early season football game.

It was the first period and objects were finally beginning to come into focus. The start of Mike's day had been predictable---a late start. At breakfast he had given up the effort to doublecheck his math. His ionic equations and scrambled eggs made a poorly balanced meal. He decided instead to give his history notes another once-over for the quiz. Caligula didn't taste too bad with buttered toast.

Mike glanced over at Corri two rows away. Her feet were still tapping from her disco-donut breakfast down in the cafe. But she had more reason than that to be excited. Last night, after one of her best nights of the season in basketball, she discovered a very special letter waiting at home. She had been accepted to Rutgers. And tomorrow, if all went well, she'd be a licensed driver.

By fourth period Mike was awake enough to hear some good news from his English teacher. Two of the poems he had submitted to the Talisman had been accepted for publication. There had been some stiff competition, and he was pleased enough with himself to lean back, gaze out his classroom window at the fountain shining in the sun, and imagine himself the first McCorristin graduate to receive the Pulitzer prize. Fortunately a nudge from a classmate behind him let him know that Sister waited to hear what he thought of Bronte's characterization of Healthcliff in Wuthering Heights.

Thank goodness French class had been quick and relatively painless. Lunchtime brought it to a merciful end.

Mike sat with his baseball teammates predicting how they would make mincemeat of the Irish. Corri got a chance to tell her good news and learned that Lisa had just gotten a raise in her job in COE Program. Mary's news was the best of all. She got a part in Bye Bye Birdie, the spring musical.

Later, sfter school, Mike and Corri found themselves torn between activities once again. Mike headed for the Student Council meeting while Corri dashed off to the Z-club.

When his Key Club meeting was postponed, Mike stopped in at the Antonian meeting to plan his layout as editor of page four. He found Corri there finishing her article wrapping up the season on the new girls' soccer team. One of the band members was there too being interviewed about his trip to Philadelphia last October to see Pope John Paul II.

When Corri and Mike finally reached home, their day was far from over. Corri spent the next two hours working out her calculus problems, studying for her chemistry test and typing the final page of her term paper.

Mike rushed through the first draft of his essay, "The Easy Life of A High School Student," and finished in time to get back to school to watch the Iron Mikes play under the lights.

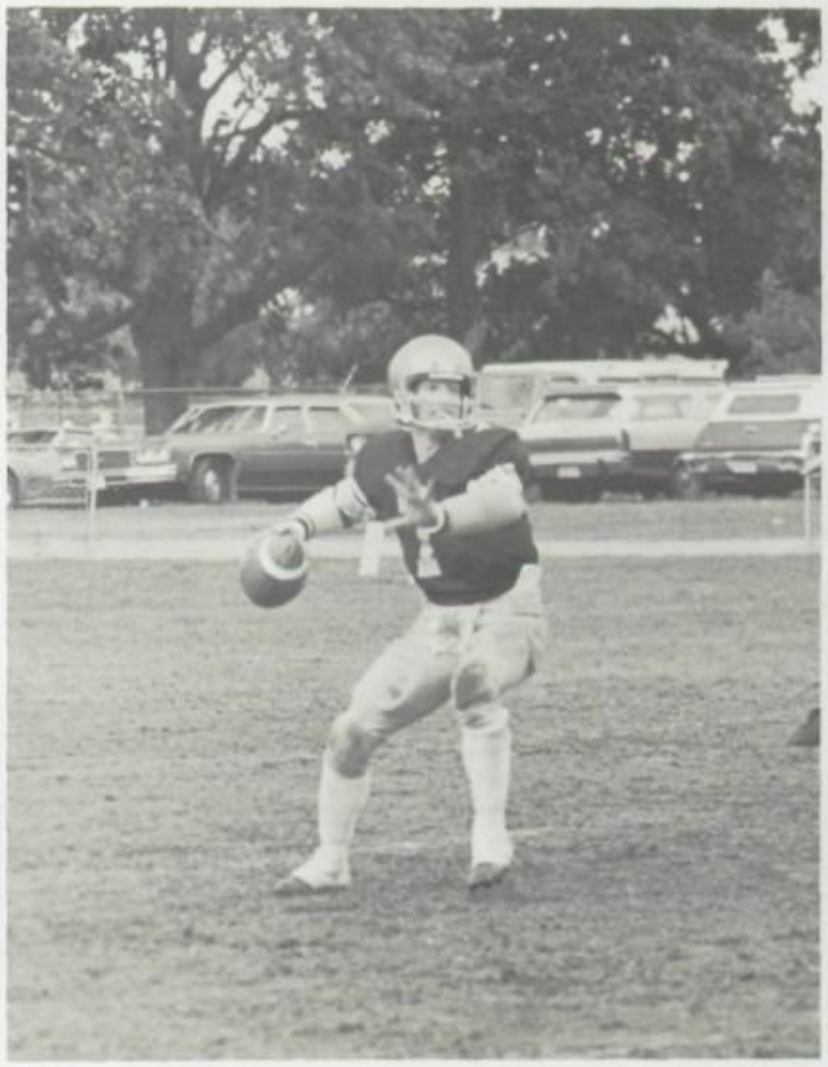
FOOTBALL TEAM CLOSES WINLESS PLAYERS ACQUIRE RECOGNITION

McCorristin's Football team ended the 1979 season with a 0-9 record. After practicing for many weeks over the summer, the team started its season on September 14, under the direction of coach Kevin Hardiman. The past football season, although it did not bring victory to the team, brought special recognition to many of its players.

Senior Larry Biesecker made first team All-County. Senior Mike Di Mattia achieved places on both the second team All-State, and the second team All-Area, in addition to first team All-County. The Delware Valley Football Foundation and Hall of Fame named senior Jeff Luther as scholar-athlete. Despite their losing record, the team displays many strong players and a good coaching staff.



Senior Jeff Klein sets up to unleash a perfect strike.

All-County player Larry "Hank" Biesecker, senior, makes another great play.

SOCCER ENDS WITH 9-10-2 RECORD PLAYERS ACHIEVE SPECIAL HONORS

This year the Iron Mikes soccer team competed under a new name, McCorristin, a new coach, Mr. Kevin Gallagher, and sported many new faces. The team, however, continued its tradition of fine soccer and sportsmanship.

The team posted a 9-10-2 record including a hard-fought 6-5-1 in the CVC which earned it a third place finish. In the state tournament, the Mikes earned impressive victories over third ranked St. Joseph's of Metauchen and second ranked Holy Cross before falling short of another South Jersey Parochial A title against state rival CBA.

Individual standouts were not lacking. Tri-captains Ken Tozzi, Vinnie Palmere, and Paul DeGregory provide valuable leadership to the younger members of the team. Ken Tozzi and Junior goalkeeper Sam Manago earned first team in All-Mercer selections. Vinnie Palmere was chosen to the second team. Paul DeGregory and Juniors Ed Broda and Joe Kildea received honorable mention.

McCORRISTIN'S NEW GIRLS VARSITY SOCCER TEAM ACQUIRES STRENGTH AND EXPERIENCE

McCorristin's first girls' soccer team, coached by Mrs. Alice Ranson, ended their season with a 2-14-1 record. Although the team did not place in the finals, they exemplified much strength for a first year team.

The girls, most of whom never played on a soccer team, practiced many weeks together before the start of the season in September. The team put forth a good defense but was lacking in offensive players. Even though the team will be losing four of its senior players, Terry Constantini, Kate Larkin, Beth Tereszczyn, and Lisa Vaccaro, many of the underclassmen provide a strong nucleus for next year.

Special recognition went to Junior Pam Mason who made the Colonial Vally Conference second team. Senior Kate Larkin, Sophomores Noreen Britton and Stacie Majeski, and Freshman Gina Dalbo received Honorable Mention for their efforts.

CROSS COUNTRY MIKES MOVE AHEAD

The 1979 McCorristin Cross Country team, under the direction of Coach Tony Nitti and his able assistant, John Connally, brought the decade to a close in a winning and spirited fashion. The McCorristin harriers enjoyed their best effort of the 70's and gained a new respect from area teams. Initially, the Mikes endeavored to establish a more esteemed name for Cross Country at McCorristin that would add to the versatility of our fine school. Consequently, they beat arch-rival, Norte Dame by placing runners in the top three slots respectively. The Mikes also posted victories over two other Colonial Conference rivals and discovered new success in the area's larger meets both individually and as a team.

IRON MIKES REBUILD WITH STYLE AND SKILL

The 1979-80 basketball season, the first as the McCorristin Iron Mikes, has been one filled with many surprises. After losing the nucleus of last year's team, the outlook for the Mikes seemed grim. The young Mikes team, under head coach Carmen Nitti and assistant coach Jack Adams, had a starting five made up of Seniors Jim Smiegocki and Mark Risoldi, Sophomores Ralph Chiarello and Willie Ellison, and Freshman Steve Brown. In addition Seniors Jerome Gilbert, Vinnie Palmere, Bruce Nelson, and Randy Ricardo, Juniors Rickie Girman and Don Browning, and Sophomores Joe Bodnar comprised the rest of the team.

The basketball team traveled to Brocton, Mass. for the Christmas Tournament and returned victories in the two game elimination contest.

The Iron Mikes came out storming in the first half of the season which surprised and changed the opinions of many. It racked up a record of 10-3 with no superstars; just an old fashion team effort. The team concluded its season finishing 3rd in the CVC with an 8-4 record and a regular season record of 12-12. A loss to Notre Dame in the first round of the Parochial A State Tournament concluded the season for the Mikes.

There were many positive indicators for coach Nitti to ponder in the off season. It will not take a very long time for the public to get used to the school's new name, for, in the next few years, McCorristin basketball teams should be at the top of the polls.

LADY MIKE REIGN SUPREME ON THE COURTS

When one speaks about area basketball, whether boys or girls, the McCorristin ladies are bound to be the topic of discussion, Posting a 21 and 3 overall record, highlighted by an undefeated C.V.C. Record (12 and 0), the Mikes were the most prominent features of area basketball.

Guiding and directing the girls was head coach Kevin Gallagher whose expertise and experience has brought a winning tradition to McCorristin. Mr. Gallagher along with the able assistance of Mrs. Alice Ranson have enjoyed a prodigious amount of talent this season. An example of such talent is All-American Kate Larkin whose leadership and ability on and off the boards have been a crucial ingredient in the success of the Mikes. Kate became the state record holder of the most points ever scored in a high school career.

This McCorristin team also enjoyed the talents of Kelli Williams and Patty Sikinger who were also named to All-Mercer and C.V.C. squads. The Mikes also employed the fine talents of Seniors Lisa Vaccaro, Joanne Bucci, and Kim Gore, along with Juniors Pam Mason, Tina Mostrangeli, Lisa Kelly, Michelle Delorme. Rounding off this spectrum of talent is Sophomore Barb Smith.

In conclusion, the McCorristin girls' basketball team have further intensified and exemplified the winning spirit which is evidenced here at McCorristin.

JV Team Front: Diane Bargholz, Marita Fisher, Chris Buck, Jackie Wyers. Back: Florence Whited, Patti Higgins, Kelly Gorman.

THEY'RE STILL NUMBER ONE

The Lady Mikes became NJSIAA state girls champs for the second year in a row, and it was an emotional moment for seniors Kate Larkin and Pam Mason.

The team traveled to Belmar, Freehold, Sayreville, and North Brunswick and were unbeatable.

There's always plenty of power on the bench. The girls saw some action against Saint Rose where they won 81 - 56.

Metuchen's girls were no match for the teamwork of Pam Mason and Patti Sikinger helping the Mikes claim the central Jersey crown.

It was a tough first against Pleasantville with an overtime score of 62 - 61, but Kelly Williams made sure the Mikes left as south Jersey champs.

In the final game, Lisa Vaccaro and Kate Larkin showed Union Catholic how the game should be played.

Aggressive Patty Sikinger was undefeatable against Union Catholic. The final score was 65 - 55.

CHEERLEADERS BOOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

The Cheerleaders of McCorrisitn High School provide plenty of support to all Iron Mike soccer, football, and basketball teams. This year, in addition to the Varsity, Junior Varsity and Frehsmen squads, a new squad was added to cheer for the Girls Varsity Basketball team.

A highlight of the season was the Varsity squad traveling to Brockton Mass. to cheer for the Boys Varsity Basketball Team in the Christmas Tournament.

The girls put in many hours practicing for this upcoming season. The Varsity squad attended a cheerleading clinic in the fall, and several members attended The National Cheerleaders' Association Camp over the summer. All the squads display much dedication and spirit.

The Cheerleaders are moderated by Sr. Therese.

BASEBALL TEAM FORESEES SUCCESS

The 1980 McCorristin High School varsity baseball team will bring much potential for success to the diamond this spring. The Colonial Valley Conference crown and a State tournament victory seem well within their grasp.

Mr. Scott Bollwage replaces Mr. Adrian Seitz as the McCorristin coach in 1980. Bollwage's baseball knowledge and the hard work of returning lettermen and new players should pay off for the Mikes this spring.

A strong nucleus of returning lettermen include catchers Mike DiMattia, Ken Unverzagt, Bob Unverzagt, infielders Ken Tozzi and Vince Palmere, outfielder Sam Manago, and crafty pitchers Tom Anama and Jim Smith.

The Iron Mikes will feature an explosive hitting attack combined with speed and solid defense. The 1980 Mikes baseball squad hope to better last year's 12-10 record, and appear to have a great chance to do so!

Mr. Inside and Mr. Outside, Ken Tozzi and Vince Palmere, team up to turn the double play.

The 1979 Track Team, under the supervision of head coach, Mr. Jack Lally, had its troubles, but improvement was evident throughout the year. The Mikes enjoyed the expertise of two new assistant coaches; Mr. Tom Mayon, who headed the weight team which accounted for the bulk of the scoring, and Mr. John Connally, an accomplished runner himself, guided the endurance team. As a result, the 1979 track team opened many doors for their underclassmen to enter which will enable them to start a new spirited season at McCorristin.

A teammate dries Kate's tears moments after breaking her 2,000 point mark.

Before the entire student body, Mr. Carson presented Kate with a trophy honoring her career scoring record.

Under Coaches Ranson and Gallagher Kate played with girls whose excellence brought them into state competition.

In a special assembly classmates applauded Kate's personal qualities that dwarf even her BB skills.

Mayor Jack Rafferty arrived for a special assembly and presented a proclamation declaring March 4 Kate Larkin Day in Hamilton Township.

Assisted by her teammates on March 1, Kate smashed the state record of 2,581 career points.

NOBODY DOES IT BETTER

As a freshman Kate Larkin became Mercer County's leading scorer averaging 21.4 points per game. Kate was named to the first team All-Mercer County by the Trenton Times, and second team All-Mercer County by the Trentonian.

In sophomore year Kate was named to the first team ALL-C.V.C. and first team All-Mercer County in both area papers. She repeated her scoring performance this time with 26.5 points per game. She became the first male or female to score 1,00 points by sophomore year. As a result she was named to the National A.A.U. All-American Philadelphia Belles.

In junior year Kate was once again named to the first teams of the C.V.C. and Mercer County by both area papers. On Feb. 23, 1979, she became Mercer County's All-time Career leading scorer (male or female) with 1,697 points. She was named to the ALL-state squad by the Newark Star Ledger and to the All-American A.A.U. Addidas team.

In senior year Kate was named to the first team squads of Mercer County and C.V.C. by both area papers. Kate also was named girl player of the week in N.J. by the Newark Star Ledger. Kate surpassed the 2,000 point mark becoming the fifth girl in N.J. to do so. The climax of Kate's incredible career came March 1, 1980, against Trenton H.S. when she smashed Ann Donavan's state record of 2,581 points with a 32 point effort. Kate is not just a dynamic scorer but through out her four years at McCorristin she managed to lead Mercer County in every statistical category including rebounds, assists, and steals.

Senior Patty Sikinger awaits the throw from home plate.

Ace pitcher, Brenda Procassini, junior, lets loose a perfect pitch.

The girls' varsity softball team, led by Coach Gary Bushelli, closed their season with a 5-14 record. The team consisted of only two seniors, three juniors, seven sophomores, and two freshmen.

The season lasted from March to May and totaled 19 games, five of which brought them victory. Since the team lost only two of its 14 players, the returning underclassmen will have the experience of working together. Bushelli, former JV coach, moved up to the varsity position at the start of the 1979 season.

BROWN TEAM BEGINS NEW DECADE WITH LONG AWAITED VICTORY

The 15th Annual G.A.A. Show displayed many firsts in the history of school competition. The action took place under a new name, McCorristin High School, talents on either team (Brown or Gold) proved evenly matched and the spirit of the girls seemed united as both teams payed tribute to the theme of the show "Disney on Parade" with the singing of "Mickey Mouse". Ultimately Brown Team came shining through with a well-earned 64 to 48 victory, the first for Brown in over seven years. The scene at the gym on November 6, 7, 8, 9, 1979 saw mistress of ceremonies, Linda Migliaccio editing the enthusiasm, co-captains of Brown Donna French and Kim Gore and of Gold, Gail Dallas and Lisa Storcella inspiring their girls to do their best with sportsmanship.

BROWN AND GOLD TEAMS SHARE THE JOY OF SUCCESS

Concluding the final competition, the awards cermeony honored for First Place Best Event Maryanne Montervino's golden jazz extravaganza "Fantasia" with teammate Maria Chiarello's tapping "Chimney Sweeps" sweeping second place. For best non-dance events Brown's Sharon Higham and Nancy Kurilla led "It's A Small World" gymnastics tribute to the International Year of the Child to recognition while Gold Team's Angela Loffredo and Alicia Tryba's imaginative "Peter Pan and Tinkerbell" went tumbling into second place. Brown cover designed by Lisa Tysko captured a four-night winning appraisal while the Lisa Storcella drew the detailed effort for Gold. All in all, every participant in this year's "First Show" should be congratulated for her hard work, enthusiasm and most importantly her sportsmanship.

For McCorristin students, with members of faculty and administration, attending Mass together is always a special occasion.

Seniors Lisa Tysko and Tim Seaman lead response at the Christmas Mass.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES UNIFY MCCORRISTIN COMMUNITY

The students and faculty share the blessings of Religious Services that Chaplain, Fr. Cahill and Associate Chaplain Fr. Liam Minogue provide.

Both priests give valuable time from daily schedules to instruct and guide the students and to offer Masses on days of special observance. Very dedicated, Fr. Cahill, taught freshman religion classes in the fall while Sr. Imelda was recovering from an illness.

Sister Helen, Religion Chairperson, keeps Religious instruction timely by organizing with Fathers Cahill and Minogue Religious Services. These Services include instructions from visiting priests, lectures from priests and sisters of various religious orders and congregations on vocations.

MARCHING UNIT RETURNS IN STYLE

September welcomed the return of the McCorristin High's Marching Band Unit. Under the direction of Mr. John Ketterer, brother of the prior director, the band performed at pep rallies, football games, and various parades.

The major event of the year's activities occurred in Philadelphia with the papal visit of Pope John Paul II. The excitement grew as the pontiff raised his arms for the band to commence playing during his brief stop in front of them.

Band Captains for this year include Debra Sabo and Donald Olla. Corinne Fiorelli ranks as Guard Captain, with Denise Minutoli and Kathy Schwab as Flag Captains. Marie Mucha heads Rifles, and Theresa Festa, Cynthia Botteri, and Sharon Tozzi lead Pom-Poms.

The Concert Band's rythmn section keeps everyone in step.

SENIORS REMEMBER RING DAY

Junior Ring Day, December 7, 1978, falls into our memory as a day never to be forgotten. The highlights included breakfast, the assembly of all juniors in the gym for the traditional mass and the blessing of the rings. The theme, "The Way We Were . . . The Way We Are", captured the hopes and dreams of tomorrow and the memories of yesterday. The sermon, delivered by Father Monogue, brought to mind the sentimental value of the rings and what they represent to each of us. Our individual growth during our high school years would soon be over and preparation for the future must begin.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES ENLIVEN GAME

On November 10, 1979 at halftime during the McCorristin-Lawrence game, Mary Crocker became the 1979-1980 Homecoming Queen. Along with Mr. Carson, last year's reigning queen, Elizabeth McManimon, crowned Mary. Carl Thomas escorted Miss Crocker and Tim Seaman was her driver.

The Queen's Court consisted of the remaining nominees. These included, Maryanne Bencivengo escorted by Michael Beckett and driven by Gino Benedetti; Gail Dallas escorted by Ted Willever and driven by Nick Corvine; Lynne Durastanti escorted by Mark Risoldi and driven by Joe Rizziello; Linda Kern escorted by Randy Ricardo and driven by Barry Latella; and Sharon Leili escorted by George Stout and driven by Michael Owens.

The classes also took part in the Homecoming Festivities. Each class selected a theme and constructed a float that pertained to their theme. The floats were judged at half-time and the winner was the Senior Class float whose theme was "The International Year of the Child." The Junior theme was "Winter Olympics," the Sophomores float theme was "Atlantic City" and the Freshmen's theme was "Disney."

Freshman spirits are not dampened by the rain as they show off their float.

KEY CLUB PROVIDES VALUABLE COMMUNITY ASSISTANCE

The Key Club of McCorristin High School provided another year of service to the school and the community. Under the direction of Mr. Tom Mahon and Mrs. Kathryn Wojcik the club responded to its theme of "Shared Togetherness".

Members gave generously of their time and energy in a Volleyball Marathon. Proceeds of the event went to Saint Francis Therapy Center. The Club also entertained senior citizens at the Mercerville Nursing Home.

Members are looking forward to attending the district convention to be held April 18. Funds have been raised for this event by conducting car washes.

DEADWOOD DICK BECOMES 1979'S DRAMATIC REVIVAL

On May 9,10, 11, 1979 "Deadwood Dick" or "A Game of Gold" by Tom Taggart under the direction of Mrs. Constance Woukoun became the first play to grace our school stage in over five years. Song and dance were incorporated into "Deadwood Dick" with the aid of Mr. Timothy Ketterer and the S.A.S. concert Band, choregrapher Nancy Kurilla and Miss Mary Fitzpatrick who primed singing actors. Obtaining the status of musical, the effort attracted many enthusiastic students to participate.

Obtaining major roles were Seniors Tom Herrera, Renee Kardos, Lisa Jaroni, Liz McManimon, and Joe Tattoni; Juniors Mary Angelini, Pete Brown, Tony Tempesta and Glen Thompson and sole Sophomore Eileen Dillon. All action took place on the one set of Calamity's Saloon designed and constructed by Joe Tattoni and Drew Demko. The success of St. Anthony's "Deadwood Dick" introduces into McCorristin the necessary basis required for good theatrical tradition in years to follow.

The "Elite Syncocaptions" dance hall girls enliven the saloon with their flashy opening number in last year's musical "Deadwood Dick."

Wetting their dusty nippers at the bar, several cowpolk and hero Ned Harris (alias D.D.) played by Peter Brown discuss the kidnapping of Miss Lily (Liz McManimon).

Patrons of Calamity's Saloon indulge in the social vices found in this western era.

Sheriff Loveless (Glen Thompson) reveals the shameful past of Calamity Jane (Eileen Dillon) to his wife Molly (Mary Angelini).

The "mysterious lady" Nancy Kurilla dances her way into the arms of gentlemen Tim Seaman and Joe Rizziello and into the hearts of the audience.

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVATES SCHOOL YEAR

Throughout the school year, the 1979-80 Student Council works with the administration and the student body, acting as a liaison between the two. This transfer of information results in increased student involvement in various school functions. Student Council receives ideas directly from the student body, which aids in its plans for many activities. Among the activities sponsored this year are a Hoagie Sale, Brown and Gold Days, Christmas Dance, Flower Sales, Sadie Hawkins Dance, Gong Show and Almost Anything Goes. These activities activate all the students and reflect the high degree of spirit present within the school.

Student Council displays outstanding leadership in the school community. Spending countless hours working for the benefit of all, Student Council proves itself to be a Superior organization. The accomplishment of goals acts as the benefit of membership in the Council. Miss Lois Yencha, moderator, oversees Student Council and assists in carrying out its endeavors.

PROM HIGHLIGHTS JUNIOR YEAR

On May 18, 1979, the McCorristin High gymnasium was changed from a sports arena to the medevial setting of "Camelot". Under the direction of Miss Mary Fitzpatrich, Junior Class moderator, and Chairperson Kim Suydam, 112 couples enjoyed a gala evening of events including buffet dinner and dancing with music provided by "Take Five". At 10:00 Sharon Higham and Vincent Palmere were crowned Prince and Princess. Members of their court included: Maryanne Montervino and Robert Riley, Victoria Muni and Michael Tighe, Elizabeth Mrazek and Joseph Pelicano, Donna French and Joseph Tachach. The entire court then danced to "Always and Forever", and at 11:00 the theme song "Wishing on a Star" was played. Everyone participated in this final dance to end this memorable evening.

Z-CLUB SERVES SCHOOL COMMUNITY

The Zonta Club is an international service organization with membership open only to girls and only by invitation. The name Zonta is derived from a Sioux Indian word meaning honest and trustworthy. Its purposes are to serve the school and the community, provide career guidance and encourage leadership in young women, and promote fellowship and better understnading in the world. Its motto is Growth through Service. The Club advisors are Mrs. Clara Stefane and assistants Mrs. Marilyn Ciocian and Mrs. Donna McDonnell.

The induction of new members and the installation of new officers highlighted the performance of the Z Club this year. Several members of the Zonta Club of Trenton were present and spoke at the initiation. Each new member lit a candle to symbolize her new involvement in the club. As a conclusion, the standing members held a party for the new entrants.

Senior Karen Platt lights her candle.

Senior JoAnne Bucci is presented with Zonta pin.

Mrs. Stefane, moderator, passes the lighted candle to Junior Rita Pontani.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY EXEMPLIFIES FOUR QUALITIES

The McCorristin High National Honor Society consists of the outstanding students exhibiting the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Each year, a number of juniors and seniors possessing these qualities are selected to be initiated into the N.H.S. Continued demostration of these characteristics is necessary to remain in the club.

Sister Mary Arlene and Mr. Kevin Sirak, club moderators, direct the N.H.S. members in a variety of activities during the school year. They assisted at such school functions as the PTA Fashion Show and the annual Spaghetti Supper. Union demonstrates the service aspect of the club. The annual Christmas show as the Morris Hall Home for the Aged highlights the club activities. This show consists of a display of the many talents of the club members and provides Christmas cheer to the elderly at the home.

Everyone is happy when Santa Claus (George Stout, senior) arrives.

COE PREPARES SENIORS FOR CAREERS

The teacher-coordinator, the student and businessman work together in preparing the student for an office occupation. The Cooperative Office Education program gives senior students who are majoring in business education an opportunity to acquire office experience as part of their high school work by attending school in the morning and working in the business office in the afternoon. They receive graduation credit and pay for their part-time employment.

Seniors Gail Dallas and Lynne Durastanti read articles submitted by students.

Seniors Lynda Kern and Ronald Greeny discuss their ideas for the Talisman.

Seniors Jeff Cuiule, Tammy Anthony, Gino Benedetti, and Ann Marie Cauwe choose well written articles for the Talisman.

Seniors Kenneth Mc Coy and Gloria Nelson ponder on possible topics

Lisa Tysko and Lori Sagnip, seniors, provide artwork for this year's Talisman.

Ernest Parrey, senior, checks over a Talisman selection for possible errors.

Talisman enters the decade with honors

Talisman, the school's literary magazine, merited "First Place" in the 1979 Columbia Scholastic Press Association Contest. It displays the outstanding artistic and writing talents of students from all grades attending McCorristin. The majority of articles reflect the ability of members of the Creative Writing Class instructed by Sister Grace Pierre, Talisman advisor. However, underclassmen entries may be submitted through their English teachers,

Within the magazine appear several examples of peoms, prose, short stories and essays along with various sketched designs. All entries are carefully evaluated by the 14 senior members of the Creative Writing Class which constitute the staff of the Talisman.

Editor-in-chief and Art Editors Lisa Tysko and Laurel Sagnip read and ensemble drawings to determine the most worthy to appear in the 1980 Talisman. Ultimately, the final endeavor af the Talisman staff is to produce a unified literary work which links art and writing.

Debate Team: Irene Gianopoulas, Tammy Anthony, Miss Georgiou, Moderator, Tracy Warner.

FORENSICS REBUILDS FOR THE FUTURE

The Forensics Club lost some valuable members with the 1979 graduating class. This year Miss Georgiou is concentrating on building a strong nucleus for the future. She plans to build up club membership, form a viable debate club and gain recognition for McCorristin in the area.

On March 29, 1980, the Grand Tournament for the Trenton Diocese will be held. If the team qualifies in this participation, they will enter the National Catholic Forensic League Tournament in Boston, Mass.

Tammy Anthony, the team's president, has a strong chance for the Nationals. She has worked diligently to keep the club alive.

Junior members of the Antonian staff carefully examine all aspects of the past issue.

Typists cautiously check for errors in spelling and grammar before attempting to type the final copy.

Senior staff members ponder possible headlines for their articles.

Ken McCoy, Editor, Miss Fabian, Advisor, and Jeff Cuiule, Associate Editor, choose pictures for the upcoming issue of the school paper.

Editors of the Antonian staff proofread articles and plan the layout of each issue.

ANTONIAN PROVIDES SCHOOL NEWS

The Antonian, published bi-monthy, provides the student body and faculty with news relating to the school and the surrounding vicinity.

Under the direction of Sr. Grace Pierre and Miss Lucine Fabian, the paper produces six copies per school year. Kenneth Mc Coy, Editor-in-chief, and Jeffrey Ciuile, Associate Editor, joined by a staff of six seniors, eleven juniors, and one sophomore, organize and write material for each issue.

In recognition of their efforts, The Antonian staff received the National Scholastic Press Association Award for the 1979-80 school year.

Senior Cathy Callahan and Judy Bogacz type all copy for 1980's yearbook under the direction of Ms. Mc Guigan.

Junior Tom Auletta's writing skills and Lisa Tysko's artwork make 1980's yearbook a success.

CORRISTIN INNOVATIONS REFLECT SCHOOL'S GROWTH AND CHANGE

The Corristin has undergone major alterations for the new decade. Ms. McGuigan of the English department became its new moderator, and changes soon began. The total number of pages was increased so that extended layout coverage could be provided for G.A.A., Marching Unit, Softball, Homecoming, and Cheerleaders. For the first time, Vo-Tech and the COE Program were given space. Very special features also introduced were the Junior Prom and Ring Day of the graduating class.
